Jeremiah Speaks

"April showers bring May flowers". The way things are going we should have tons of May flowers. There is not too much to talk about and that is good for me because I have a "frog" in my throat and won't be able to say too much. First off we welcome new member Greg Logsdon with his 1989 Black Coupe. This month's activities started with a tour of past members Steve and Maryann Nowicki's Shock & Awe Metal Art Studio along with a stop at Brian Yates "Peace by Piece" studio that shows additional metal artwork. We will be attending the annual La Connor Tulip parade on April 9th along with members from the Seattle Marque Club, Tacoma Corvette Club, and Bellingham Corvette Club. Next up is the annual excursion to Pacific Beach on April 17th to the 21st for a relaxing four night stay with side trips to Ocean Shores, Casino gambling and whatever else we can find to do there. If anyone else wants to go along, please contact us now so that reservations for a room can be made. Our calendar is starting to fill up for the year but if you have any suggestion for road trips, etc., please let us know so we can add it to the schedule. We hope everyone has a great month and don't forget to wear your "water wings".

The Rules of Housework

1. Vacuuming too often weakens the carpet fibers. Say this with a serious face, and shudder delicately whenever anyone mentions Carpet Fresh.
2. Dust bunnies cannot evolve into dust rhinos when disturbed. Rename the area under the couch "The Galapagos Islands" and claim anecological exemption.
3. Layers of dirty film on windows and screens provide a helpful filter against harmful and aging rays from the sun. Call it an SPF factor of 5 and leave it alone.
4. Cobwebs artfully draped over lampshades reduce the glare from the bulb, thereby creating a romantic atmosphere. If your spouse points out that the light fixtures need dusting, simply look affronted and exclaim, "What? And spoil the mood?"
5. In a pinch, you can always claim that the haphazard tower of unread magazines and newspapers next to your chair provides the valuable Feng Shui aspect of a tiger, thereby reducing your vulnerability. Roll your eyes when you say this.
6. Explain the mound of pet hair brushed up against the doorways by claiming you are collecting it there to use for stuffing hand sewn play animals for underprivileged children.
7. If unexpected company is coming, pile everything unsightly into one room and close the door. As you show your guests through your tidy home, rattle the door knob vigorously, fake a growl and say, "I'd love you to see our Den, but Fluffy hates to be disturbed and the shots are SO expensive."
8. If dusting is REALLY out of control, simply place a showy urn on the coffee table and insist, "THIS is where Grandma wanted us to scatter her ashes..."
9. Don't bother repainting. Simply scribble lightly over a dirty wall with an assortment of crayons, and try to muster a glint of tears as you say, "Junior did this the week before that unspeakable accident...I haven't had the heart to clean it..."
10. Mix one quarter cup pine scented household cleaner with four cups of water in a spray bottle. Mist the air lightly. Leave dampened rags in conspicuous locations. Develop an exhausted look, throw yourself onto the couch, and sigh, "I clean and I clean and I still don't get anywhere..."

THE CORVETTE PRAYER

My Corvette Is my Shepherd,... I shall go fast.
It maketh me burnout on black pavements...,
It leadeth me down wide open highways....
It leads me on the path of gut-wrenching quickness,...
Yea, though I drive through the valley of rice,
I shall fear no turbo, for the Torque art with me.....
Thy rod and Thy piston, they comfort me.....
Thou preparest a smooth track before me.....
Thou hast anointed my bearings with Mobile One oil.....
My car has an abundance of power....,
Surly traction and victory shall follow me
All the days of my life.....
And I will dwell in the house of the Chevy V-8
Forever Amen

bivouac \BIV-wak, BIV-uh-wak\, noun:

1. An encampment for the night, usually under little or no shelter.
intransitive verb:
1. To encamp for the night, usually under little or no shelter.
Rob had made his emergency bivouac just below the South Summit.
-- David Breashears, "Death on the mountain", The Observer, March 30, 2003
They were stopped by savage winds and forced to bivouac 153 m below the day's goal.
-- Erik Weihenmayer, "Men of the Mountain", Time
Pacific, February 4, 2002
Bivouac comes from French bivouac, from German Beiwache, "a watching or guarding," from bei, "by, near" + wachen, "to watch."

dapple \DAP-uhl\, noun:

1. A small contrasting spot or blotch.
2. A mottled appearance, especially of the coat of an animal (as a horse).
transitive verb:
1. To mark with patches of a color or shade; to spot.
intransitive verb:
1. To become dappled.
adjective:
1. Marked with contrasting patches or spots; dappled.
Look at . . . his cows with their comic camouflage dapples
. . . .
-- Arthur C. Danto, "Sometimes Red", ArtForum, January 2002

70 diamond- and hexagonal-shaped holes, 35 between the North End ramp and the northbound lanes, and 35 between the northbound and southbound lanes, allow light to filter through and dapple the river below.
-- Raphael Lewis, "A walk into the future", Boston Globe, May 9, 2002

Gentle shafts of sunlight . . . dapple the grass.
-- Gail Sheehy, Hillary's Choice

Dapple derives from Old Norse depill, "a spot."

Interesting Fact

Amazing Burn Remedy [Good to know!]

Impressive! Why did we never hear of this before???? I've always just run it under the cold water tap (and screamed a lot).

A woman's experience with burns . . .
Some time ago I was cooking some corn and stuck my fork in the boiling water to see if the corn was ready. I missed and my hand went into the boiling water.... A friend of mine, who was a Vietnam vet, came into the house, just as I was screaming, and asked me if I had some plain old flour... I pulled out a bag and he stuck my hand in it. He told me to keep my hand in the flour for 10 minutes which I did. He said that in Vietnam, there was a guy on fire and in their panic, they threw a bag of flour all over him to put the fire out... Well, it not only put the fire out, but he never even had a blister!!!!

... Long story short, I put my hand in the bag of flour for 10 mins, pulled it out and did not even have a red mark or a blister and absolutely NO PAIN.
Now, I keep a bag of flour in the fridge and every time I burn myself. *Cold

flour feels even better than room temperature flour.

I use the flour and have never ONCE had I ever had even a red spot/burn mark, or a blister! I even burnt my tongue once, put the flour on it for about 10 minutes ... the pain was gone and no burn.

Try it . . . Experience a miracle! Keep a bag of flour in your fridge and you will be happy you did!

BTW, don't run your burn area under cold water first, just put it directly into the flour for 10 minutes.

Chicken Puttanesca

From: Campbell's Kitchen

Prep: 10 minutes

Cook: 30 minutes

Serves: 4

Wake up your palate with this bold, savory and absolutely delicious skillet chicken dish...if you're trying to add some spice to your dinner, this is the dish that'll do it!

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 1/4 pounds skinless, boneless chicken breast halves
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Campbell's® Condensed French Onion Soup
- 1 can (14.5 ounces) diced tomatoes, undrained
- 1/3 cup pitted kalamata olives cut in half
- 3 tablespoons rinsed and drained capers
- 1/8 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 2 teaspoons anchovy paste

Directions:

Heat the oil in a 10-inch skillet over medium-high heat. Add the chicken and cook for 10 minutes or until well browned on both sides. Remove the chicken from the skillet.

Reduce the heat to medium. Add the garlic to the skillet and cook and stir for 1 minute. Stir in the soup, tomatoes with liquid, olives, capers, red pepper and anchovy paste, if desired, and heat to a boil. Cook for 10 minutes or until the soup mixture is reduced to 2 cups.

Return the chicken to the skillet. Reduce the heat to low. Cook for 5 minutes or until the chicken is cooked through.

Recipe Tips:

Ingredient Note: We develop our recipes using a 4-to 5-ounce skinless, boneless chicken breast half per serving. However, there are a range of sizes available in-store, from the butcher counter to the meat case and the freezer section. Use whichever you prefer- just follow the recipe as written above for the best result. If you're using larger chicken breasts they may require a little longer cooking time.
