Blast from the Past:

Food & Fun Run Sunday Sept. 20, 1998 by Donna Ducken

The sun was shining and the orvettes were sparkling as Duckens, Gilberts, Telles, Fosters, Spurrier (with Mom), Nelsons and DeLeonardos took off from the Safeway parking lot to the restaurant for brunch.

My "children for the day-sat with me, Steve & Ron F. gave Linda Telles her second shower of the day, Rita was "attacked" by crab legs and the food and service were great. DeLeonardos left (with my children!) after brunch and the rest of us stopped off to see Skip Nelson's go karts in progress. Then after a short stop at the beach, we waved goodbye to the Fosters. The rest of us, after a nice winding scenic drive, found ourselves shopping in Langley!

A stop at the Marina let us explore the "sea" life, which included a bikini clad woman who left rather quickly upon our arrival. Could it have been the fact that all the guys were staring and pointing at her?

We watched the baby salmon swimming and had to abandon thoughts of "adopting" some for pets at our houses when we were informed we too would be spending time at a "big house".

Skip found some really big "fish" and we watched them swim after the pennies he was throwing in the water. Not ready to go home yet, we made our way back to Coupeville and had yet more food and drink to end the day. It was perfect from start to finish and we had a great time!

So until the next time..Remember to Save the Wave!

2018 Chevrolet Corvette Grand Sport: Even a Compromised Version Will Blow You Away –

There's a big problem in America today: Not enough people are buying Corvettes.

It's a minor issue, all things considered. But like a coal fire quietly burning away beneath the ground of a small Pennsylvania town, it's a slow-moving menace that could, given time, cause a beloved thing to disappear. If people aren't buying Corvettes, the Corvette itself could be in danger.

Oliver Gavin and Tommy Milner were fifth in their No. 4 Mobil 1/SiriusXM Chevrolet Corvette C7.R despite late-race contact that sent Milner off track on the final lap.
