Old Business:

Our Water Front Shows will be June 2, All Corvettes, and June 3, Open Class. We are thinking about combining all C-3's into one class.

Our Christmas party was great, good food, great company and wonderful entertainment provided by Jack Duncan.

New Year's day brunch at Calico Cupboard in Mt Vernon was enjoyed by many, and the dinner on Jan. 16 at Max Dales was attended by 33 members.

New Business:

Saturday Feb. 17 is the annual B-B-Q at Corvettes of Auburn put on by the Tacoma Corvette Club.

The trip to Lynnwood to select trophies will be April 7th.

Linda is planning a road trip on Sunday April 22. We will meet at Mt Vernon Petco 10 AM.

No date has been set for the show at Shell.

Trailer day will be on May 6th. Bring any raffle prizes you want to donate. Think about making up a gift basket to raffle.

Skagit Casino car show on Sept. 10. No entry fee, for more info call (877) 275-2448(Nicky) or Sagit.com.

Joanne and Brian have scheduled their party for Aug. 11th,

Meeting adjourned at 7:38 PM.

Blast from the Past:

Valentine's Party

Saturday, February 13, 1999

by Donna Ducken

This year our party, attended by 35 people, was held at the Cranberry Tree Restaurant in Mt. Vernon. We had the same private room we had for our New Year's Party. There were nice Valentine's decorations set up, a private cash bar and a side room with a wonderful buffet. We started with a social hour before making several trips through the buffet. Gilberts had placed Valentine goodies on the tables for all of us and the Strowbridges made custom Valentine's cards for every one! I'm keeping mine!

Then the Reeds dropped off more goodies for all. The waitress announced the buffet and the pushing and shoving began. Not really, everyone (well almost) was very well behaved. Rumor has it that Steve D. tried to cut in front of Linda G. again. The buffet was wonderful and had tons of things to chose from, all of them good! Desert was a delicious chocolate mousse.

After the desert was served the waitress said she had a presentation to make to Stacey courtesy of his wife DoUy. It was a new buddy for Stacey (now he won't have to try and find someone who's wife will let them "play" with him!). His official name xxxx was but we nicknamed him Fuzzy Wuzzy.

He sure was cute and very well behaved.. Stacey left him all alone at the table when he went to get a drink from the bar and while his back was turned Fuzzy was kidnapped. The ransom note (written on the back of my valentine's card envelope!) said a round of drinks had to be purchased to ensure his safe return. Stacey was beside himself with worry. I felt bad about the situation (besides I was being accused of the dastardly deed!) so with Paul's help canvassed the restaurant to see where Fuzzy could be. We found him being held by some pretty scary looking people in the lounge. Paul distracted them and we rescued Fuzzy and returned him to Stacey. Stacey was ecstatic but Paul & I never did get a reward fro our efforts!

After all the excitement it was time to hold our make-up meeting to order. (Our Feb 9"" one was canceled due to the prediction of snow. We discussed several things and voted to order personalized plates for our club trailer.

After dinner we visited some more and slowly but surely said goodnight to members as they made their way through the rain to their cars. It was time to end another perfect evening with great friends.

Corvette News:

When your Z06 just isn't unique enough!

How do you make a Corvette Z06 even better? Take it to Callaway for 757 horsepower and an AeroWagen shooting brake conversion. This particular AeroWagen sports plenty of those custom components. The drivetrain is upgraded to Callaway SC757 spec, featuring a 2.3-liter supercharger peeking through the hood, fed by a new high-flow intake and improved intercoolers; a sport exhaust smooths and amplifies the 6.2-liter V8's song. Callaway says the package adds 107 horses and 127 lb-ft of torque to the stock Z06 on which it's based, good for a face-flattening 2.8-second 0-60 and a mid-10-second quarter-mile. The smoke and black streaks say it all!

Corvette ZR1 Just Smashed the Ford GT's VIR Lap Record!

With a time of 2:37.25, the ZR1 is more than a second quicker than the GT around VIR's Grand Course West layout.

Chevrolet announced today it was able to lap a 2019 ZR1 equipped with the optional eight-speed auto and ZTK performance package around VIR in 2:37.25. That's 1.37 seconds quicker than the Ford GT's time, making the ZR1 the fastest production vehicle to ever lap the course.

Aside from a harness bar and five-point harnesses, Chevy says the ZR1 used was totally stock, set up with alignment and aero settings specified in the owner's manual. The $2,995 ZTK package gives the car a whole bunch of aggressive features, including an adjustable carbon fiber wing, a front splitter, Michelin Pilot Sport Cup 2 tires, and track-ready magnetic ride control. The lap was set during validation testing earlier in January leading up to the car's production.
