Everyone was welcomed by the President, Linda. She would like to see more day runs this year, stopping for lunch and/or ice cream. Everyone's ideas are welcome. More long trips were suggested such as flying to Bowling Green or attending Hot August Nights in Reno. If anyone would like to organize an outing, large or small, please feel free.

There are many car shows to attend with a definite for the Veterans show. More information on the Yakima show to come, watch your email. No word on the Shell show yet.

Linda received a call about the Sedro Woolley show. It was a disaster due to bad mouthing on Facebook and bad ticket sales. She was asked if the club wanted to take over this show. Would it be beneficial to us? She is looking for feedback on this.

No word from our sponsor Jerry Smith.

Bill Ruch has started with the point system. 1 point per membership for showing up, 1 point for wearing the MGCC logo or nametag, 1 point for bringing a guest and 1 point for driving your Corvette. (Verify information with Bill Ruch)

Everyone was welcomed by Linda. It was a stormy evening and a great turnout.

Still no word from our sponsor Jerry Smith. Suggestions to look into other dealerships in the area including Dwayne Lane and Roy Robinson.

The Bellingham Corvette club would like to come to our meetings. Roger and their president will be attending and perhaps joining with our club. Could be a great opportunity for both clubs since we do different shows and trips.

Linda is still talking to Doyle about the Sedro Woolley car show. Lots of questions and concerns regarding this. She will get back to us.

Reminder, the first meeting of 2019 will be at Coconut Kenny's on Tuesday, February 12th.

Soggy Result in Rolex 24 for Corvette C7.Rs

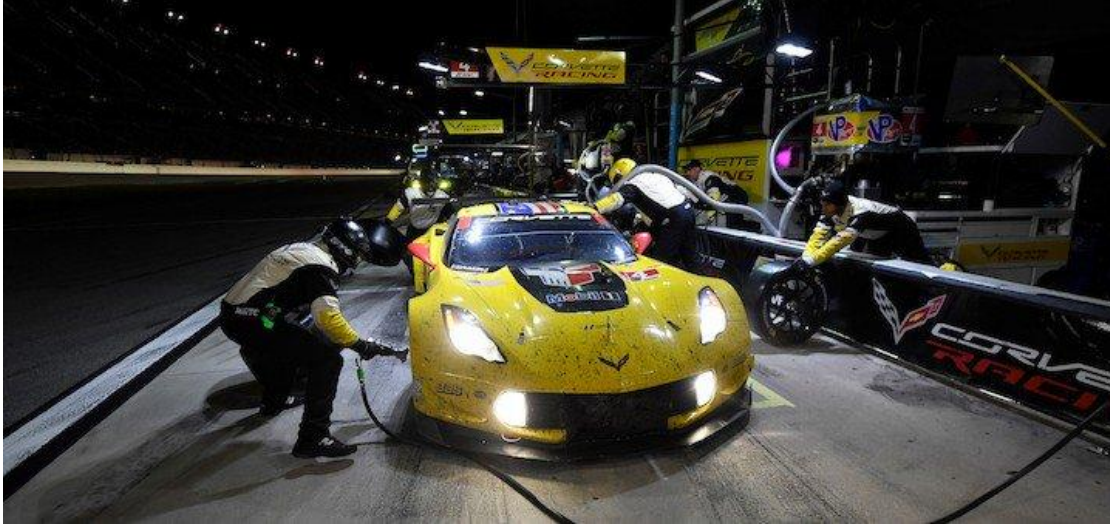

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (Jan. 27, 2019) – In more than two decades of competition, Corvette Racing has faced its share of adversity and challenging conditions. The championship-winning program experienced the highs and lows of endurance racing Saturday and Sunday in a soggy start to the 2019 IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship which was red flagged to an end two hours early due to heavy rain.

The two Mobil 1/SiriusXM Chevrolet Corvette C7.Rs finished the Rolex 24 At Daytona despite some of the most treacherous conditions in the team's 21-year history. Both Corvettes led the GT Le Mans (GTLM) class on multiple occasions in the opening half of the race before troubles beset Corvette Racing entries (beginning when the cars came together in the pit lane).

The No. 3 Chevrolet Corvette C7.R of Antonio Garcia, Jan Magnussen and Mike Rockenfeller led the team's effort with a sixth-place class finish while the No. 4 Corvette C7.R of Gavin, Tommy Milner and Marcel Fässler finished eighth after appending time in the pits to repair the left side of the car after an excursion off track and into the wall caused by the heavy rainfall.
