No meetings in January so here are a couple items from the January 1st, 2020, New Year's Brunch:

New Year's Brunch at Calico Cupboard, Mount Vernon

Lots of Corvettes showed up today for the sunny, brisk morning. It was great to see Ron Telles after his surgery. The brunch was delicious as always.

Everyone was welcomed by the President, Linda. She introduced the board members. Linda spoke about planning more activities. She is planning a progressive dinner. She talked about attending different shows this year such as the Maltby show. We discussed a trip to Boise this year instead of Yakima and about going to Lind for their Combine Demo Derby. More discussion of these events when the meetings start in February.

Ron Telles told us about how great Evergreen Chevrolet in Issaquah treated him. They have get togethers and BBQ's. He will keep track of that and let us know so we can attend.

Linda let us know that we are in Cruzin' Magazine.

Discussed repairing the electrical in the trailer. All voted to send it to a professional electrician.

Bill Ruch discussed the point system. 1 point per membership for showing up, 1 point for wearing the MGCC logo or nametag, 1 point for bringing a guest and 1 point for driving your Corvette.

See you at the next meeting at Lorenzo's on February 4.

Corvette News:

Drive it like you own it!

The scene at the Bowling Green Assembly Plant has been tense lately, what with the production delays surrounding the vaunted mid-engine 2020 Chevrolet Corvette C8. So who could blame two of the car's engineers for grabbing a couple test models and letting off steam with a little race? For starters, the Kentucky State Police.

Automobile reports the two GM employees were arrested on Wednesday night after speeding side-by-side down Lover's Lane in Bowling Green in a pair of pre-production Corvettes. Read the full article here

CORVETTE RACING AT DAYTONA 24 HOURS: Record Distance in C8.R Debut

Corvette Racing's new Chevrolet Corvette C8.R finished its maiden race with a fourth-place finish in the Rolex 24 At Daytona to start the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship.

Antonio Garcia, Jordan Taylor and Nicky Catsburg led the team's effort Saturday and Sunday in the No. 3 Mobil 1/SiriusXM Chevrolet Corvette C8.R, which had a mostly trouble-free run in its competition debut. The trio completed 785 laps for 2,794.6 miles – the greatest distance for any Corvette entry in Rolex 24 history.

The No. 4 Mobil 1/SiriusXM Corvette C8.R of Oliver Gavin, Tommy Milner and Marcel Fässler underwent multiple trials Saturday and Sunday, but the trio ultimately finished the race as well. While things looked optimistic in the first eight hours with the team racing inside the top-five, an oil leak near the ninth hour forced the No. 4 Corvette into the garage for nearly nine hours for extensive work. Complicating matters, the leak was in an area that required the team's crew to remove the engine in order to make the repair.
