Old Business:

- Linda let us know how Doug is doing. He is home and doing very well. He is gaining weight and will be taking pills & infusions instead of chemo treatments.
- Linda has scheduled the Christmas Party for December 3rd at Max Dale's. They do not have their menu or prices yet. She is thinking the menu will be the same as previous years. Drinks at 6:30 and dinner at 7:00. There will be a gift exchange if you would like to participate. Gift limit is around $15.00.
- Discussion on our car show next year. Linda has talked with the Chamber of Commerce about funding. They will pay up to $1,100.00 to us for advertising. This would cover flyers, trophies, dash plaques and any kind of advertising. Motion to apply for funding was approved. Bill Ruch will get the trophies.
- Discussion on what we can do for Doyle. Linda would like for him to bring 2 trucks to the car show and place the banner between them. We are still interested in a show at the Skagit Speedway.
- Ballots for the Club Officers have been collected. Winners will be announced at the Christmas Party.

New Business:

- Cynthia spoke with Ann Marie about Dick & Betty. They will be moving to an assisted living facility in Smokey Point. No visitors, but a mailing address is coming soon for cards & letters.
- We need to find a new meeting place with no stairs. Suggestions are welcome.
- Information on New Year's lunch coming. Linda will stop by Calico Cupboard in Mount Vernon. She got nowhere on the phone with them.
- This is the last meeting until February.
