Old Business:

- The application for the street closure from the city of Anacortes was approved for this year's car show.
- The probability of our 2027 Car Show in Anacortes looks promising. However, there will likely be fewer spaces for cars. At this year's show we'll take a look at the area to estimate the impact.
- It was discovered that one of our agreed upon charity donations will be going out of State instead of staying local. It was decided to hold onto the money for now.
- The website provider was discussed. The decision was made to stick with the current provider unless a cheaper option is found.
- Bill R. mentioned that the Black Hills Car Show Classic registration is expensive and does not include food, the two banquets, t-shirt or hotel room. This car show is in July. If anyone would like information, Bill will send Julie that information to forward.

New Business:

- Larry, the owner of Moreno's, expressed interest in our club having a one day Car Show outside of his restaurant sometime late spring or summer on a Saturday or Sunday. There is plenty of space to park our cars in the back on the grass.
- Karen is starting to collect donations for the raffle at our Car Show. She wanted to give us three month's to collect items. We are welcome to make our own baskets.
- Two events are taking place on March 21st. Volunteer opportunity at Summit Assistance Dogs from noon to 2. The Tacoma Corvette Club Open House is from noon to 3. Frank said that he will be taking fliers of our Car Show to share with the other Clubs. Anyone who would like to join him is welcome.
- This year's car show will have three categories instead of two. There were a lot of voters that wanted to vote for host cars last year. We'll make the decision of where to park the host cars the morning of our car show to keep them separated.
- Last year's Christmas Party was a little tight in the room we were seated with the amount of members that came.

Frank voiced that suggestions are welcome. Maureen will reach out to Rhodes River Ranch, as an idea.
-Dale mentioned that Jim and June put together a dinner run to Winthrop after the end of the tourist season. We will try to get more information about this trip.
-Kristie had a flyer for the Corvettes On the Columbia car show happening September 10th-12th. Make reservations now if interested in going. Hotels fill up fast. You can register through Eventbrite.

Happy March birthdays to Marcie and Kirk.
